NATION'S STRIKERS AT 450,000

GENERAL MACARTHUR GAVE JAP PREMIER ORDER FOR REFORMS

PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR SENDING HOME 1,250,000 TROOPS IN SIX MONTHS

TOKYO, Oct. 11.—(AP)—General MacArthur gave orders for sweeping social and political reforms in Japan today and announced plans for sending home 1,260,000 American soldiers from the Pacific theatre in the next six months.

The Americans will return to the United States at the rate of approximately a quarter of a million a month, leaving by the end of March only 400,000 occupation and garrison troops in the entire far-flung Pacific Theatre.

The announcement further reduced the number of troops which the allied commander expects to keep in Japan. Previously he estimated 200,000 troops would be sufficiant, but today announcement disclosed that 200,000 would do the job both for Japan and Korea. The total would include four combat divisions on Japan and two on Korea. The balance would be air service and occupation force specialists.

MacArthur met Premier Shidehara for an hour late today, telling the new Japanese government head that the five major reforms needed in Japan would necessitate revision of the constitution and that:

Expects Quick Action.

"I expect you to institute them as rapidly as they can be assimilated."

MacArthur likewise put it squarely up to Shidehara to take prompt and "vigorous" action to see that the Japanese people are clothed, fed and housed during the coming winter.

The meeting, at MacArthur's headquarters and initiated by Shidehara shortly after he had completed his cabinet and called on the emperor, came shortly after the allied supreme commander had directed the Japanese government to report within 90 days all foreign exchange assets, including private holdings and foreign properties of the imperial household.

Allied headquarters also announced revocation of permission to the Japanese to operate an air courier and liaison transport service. The job will be taken over by American airmen.

Cost of War to Japan.

Cost of the war to Japan from July, 1937, to its end was indicated by the commercial daily paper, Nippon Dangyo, which said the Japanese funded borrowings at the end of July, 1945, amounted to 114,289,000,000 yen ($6,619,266,666.)

The reforms which MacArthur told Shidehara must be made in carrying out surrender terms included votes for women, labor unionization, liberalization of education, abolition of all secret governmental police and revision of industrial monopolies.

The order for the report on foreign exchange assets was the sixth step the allied command has taken in bringing about tight control of Nipponese finances.

Obviously allied investigators are on the search for war loot and

CONGRESS REACTED WARMLY TO PROPOSAL ON FOREIGN LOANS

DIPLOMATS, HOWEVER, WORRIED OVER BLUNT LANGUAGE OF COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Congress reacted warmly today to a House Committee's proposal that America withhold loans to Russia and Britain until they make certain policy changes.

But several key officials said they wished the committee had not been so blunt. They expressed fear that what they termend "undiplomatic language" would place added strains on relations between the United States and its war time allies.

The suggestions concerning American lending policy came from the postwar economic policy committee headed by Rep. Colmer (D-Miss).

Just returned from a two-month tour of Europe the group urged specifically that before any loans are made:

1. Russia be required to adopt an "open door" attitude toward American technicians and the press.

2. Britain unlock trade barriers "inimical" to United States interests.

Congressmen questioned were unanimous in approving the committee's views.

A high administration official, asking that his name not be used, said in an interview:

"I can't say this for attribution, but the feeling is almost unanimous in congress for cracking down on Britain and Russia. It's too bad, but that's the way it is.

"However, I think we would be better off to reflect these views to the two nations privately, instead of using a big stick on them in public. Naturally, they will resent a report such as this one."

HOUSE COMMITTEE TOLD OF EFFECTIVE DEFENSE FOR BOMB

SECRETARY WALLACE DISCUSSES ATOMIC BOMB BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—(AP)—The House navy committee reported today "indications that an effective counter measure to atomic bombs has been developed."

"Knowledge of electronics," the committee said, "promises ability to detonate atomic bombs at great distances by radio."

The report, based on testimony of high naval officers, did not explain the development beyond saying atomic bombs could be exploded "far short of their objective."

The House committee report was issued as Secretary of Commerce Wallace told the Senate military-commerce committees that the United States might stock up more aomic bombs than other nations and still be the most vulnerable of all.

"This is essentially an offensive weapon," Wallace testified.

In a formal report on legislation dealing with the size of the post-war navy, the House Naval Committee said:

Most Destructive Force

"There can be no question that the atomic bomb is the most destructive force yet devised by man. But history shows that the science of warfare has always developed an effective counter measure for every new instrument of destruction.

"There are indications that an effective counter measure to atomic bombs has been developed to such an extent that they can be exploded far short of their objective without the necessity of lo-

CHINESE FACTIONS AGREE UPON BASIC PEACE PRINCIPLES

By CLYDE FARNSWORTH.

CHUNGKING, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Chinese Nationalists and Communist negotiators for a unified China issued a communique today agreeing upon basic principles of political peace in a nation split for decades by bloody fighting for government control.

The communique also set forth tahe negotiators' willingness to continue the talks which have been underway during a five-week old truce in the fighting, and t submit complex military and political questions still unsettled to a military consultative council.

The statement indicated the determination of Nationalist Leader Chiang Kai-Shek to achieve "unity of political authority" immediately.

Mao Tze-Tung, leader of the Communist forces, said "the outlook is optimistic" as he boarded a plane in Chungking to return to his headquarters at Yenan, Shensi province. He conceded that some points remained to be settled, but he said this work could be done by the military committee and the political council.

Mao was a guest last night at Chiang's Shantung home. They attended a diplomatic reception at National government headquarters observing the double tenth.

Hero's Welcome For Adm. Nimitz In Dallas Friday

DALLAS, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Dallas was set today to welcome back Adm. Chester W. Nimitz to his home state.

The Pacific fleet commander is due here at 11 a. m. tomorrow and plans called for the biggest victory celebration in Dallas since the 1918 Armistice.

Hotel walls were bulging, and rooms in private homes were at a premium.

Among high-ranking naval officers scheduled to arrive with Admiral Nimitz are:

Rear. Adm. Charles A. Pownall, chief of naval air training, Pensacola Fla.; Rear Adm. J. J. (Jocko) Clark, commander of the Naval Air Training base, Corpus Christi; Rear Adm. A. C. Bennett, commandant Eighth Naval District, New Orleans and Rear Adm. H. B. Miller, director of Navy Public Information, Washington.

A parade will be held starting at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow, following an official welcome at the Hall of State in Fair Park by Gov. Coke Stevenson, and a luncheon honoring Admiral and Mrs. Nimitz by the chamber of commerce at a local hotel.

The admiral and party will leave Dallas at 4 p. m. tomorrow for Austin. Saturday he will journey to Fredericksburg and Kerrville.

He will leave Austin Saturday night by plane for San Francisco.

PERON OFFICIALLY OUT BUT IS STILL ARGENTINA FACTOR

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Gen. Eduardo Avalos, commander of the powerful Campo De Mayo garrison, took over the Argentine war ministry today as the power behind the military government but there were indications that Col. Juan Peron, though divisted of his cabinet status, remained a strong factor in the confused political situation.

Only a few hours after the government had accepted Peron's resignation as vice president, war minister and minister of labor and social welfare, he delivered a speech last night to an enthusiastic crowd in which he pledged the remainder of his life "to the cause of the working man."

Crise of "Our President!" came from the cheering throng which gathered outside the secretariat of labor to hear the "Iron Man's" speech, which was nationally broadcast.

(Peron's speech was interpreted in some Latin-American quarters as inaugurating his campaign for designation as president in the general elections which have been promised for April.)

Avalos, leader of the actual fighting which put Peron in a position of power in the 1943 revolution, was designated as war minister last night. As the army spokesman in the government he now is the real power behind the military regime of President Edelmiro Farrell.

The first acts of the government under Avalos' domination included the closing of a half-dozen newspapers, which apparently had rejoiced too freely when Peron stepped down, and naming to key government posts two men who have been friendly to Peron in the past.

CONSTABLE PCT. ONE FACES FOUR GRAND JURY INDICTMENTS

T. J. ROE CHARGED WITH ROBBERY, ASSAULT, DWI, AND DRUNKENESS

T. J. Roe, constable of Precinct 1, Corsicana, was named in four of ten indictments returned to A. P. Mays, district judge, Wednesday afternoon by the Navarro county grand jury, following three days' session. The grand jurors also returned a written report to Judge Mays, signed by the 12 men suggesting that the county attorney's office take such legal action in the name of the State of Texas, and on the petition of the grand jury, as is necessary to remove the constable from the office as constable and that Roe be suspended from said office pending removal proceedings.

Four Charges.

Roe was indicted on charges of robbery, driving while intoxicated, aggravated assault and drunkeness in a public place. The robbery indictment alleged the officer took $26 from Walter Smith, negro, October 3, 1945, and also the aggravated assault indictment, a misdemeanor, was for an alleged assault on Smith. Judge Mays set the following bonds: Robbery case, $1,000; driving while intoxicated, $500; aggravated assault, $250, and drunkeness in public place, $200.

V. J. Roe, a son of the officer, home on leave from the U. S. navy (in the navy six years), was indicted on charges of robbery, aggravated assault, and drunkeness in a public place in companion indictments to those against the officer. Similar bonds were set in his cases.

Serving Second Term.

The constable is serving his second term, having been re-elected without opposition in 1944. Prior to his first term as constable here, he served as deputy constable. Roe had been ill and was a patient several days at the P. and S. Hospital, being able to leave the hospital Thursday morning.

David Ralston, assistant county attorney in charge of that office, stated Wednesday evening that he would immediately prepare and file ouster proceedings against Constable Roe in accordance with the request, recommendation and suggestion of the grand jury in its written report to the district judge.

Other Indictments.

Pete Kirk also was named in three indictments. One was for burglary in connection with his alleged breaking into the residence of his father-in-law, Herbert Hart Tuesday morning, and the other two were aggravated assault cases in connection with attacks on Herbert and Minnie Hart at the same address. The arrest was made by city police and complaints were filed before Judge A. E. Foster, who transcripted the cases to the grand jury after putting the defendant under a $2,500 peace bond.

HOUSE DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS ASK SPENDING CUTS

TAX REDUCTION BILL TAKEN UP ON TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT BASIS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—A $5,350,000,000 tax cut in individuals and business in 1946 was approved overwhelmingly by the House today.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—House Democrats and Republicans joined today in demanding a slashing in federal expenditures as the chamber began consideration of a $5,350,000,000 tax reduction bill.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the tax-framing ways and means committee, told his colleagues the budget ways and means committee, told his colleagues the budget must be balanced and payments must be made on the huge national debt.

"To make taxes bearable it is important that all non-essential federal spending be eliminated," he declared.

The house Republican leader, Martin of Massachusetts, "served notice" that his party will fight "with unflagging determination to reduce the costs of this government and, by so doing, eventually reduce the burden of taxes."

The house took up the measure on a take it or leave it basis as proposed by the ways and means committee.

Convening two hours earlier than usual, the chamber adopted procedure designed to speed the first peacetime tax reduction measure to passage by nightfall. Under the arrangement, no changes could be made from the floor without consent of the ways and means committee which drafted the legislation.

The measure, which also must be approved by the Senate, would do this beginning January 1.

1. Guarantee every individual income taxpayer a reduction of at least 10 per cent. Total cuts for individuals would amount to $2,627,000,000.

2. Sweep 12,000,00 low income persons off income tax rolls completely. When the war ended there were approximately 5,000,000 individual taxpayers.

3. Lower corporation tax burdens $1,888,000,000 by trimming the effective rate of the war-imposed excess profits tax from 85.5 to 60 per cent; reducing the combined corporation normal and surtax from 40 per cent to 36; and repealing next July 1 the declared value capital stocks tax. The bill calls for repeal of the excess profits tax Jan. 1, 1947.

BYRNES' CALL FOR MEETING OF FAR EASTERN ADVISORY BODY HAS IMPORTANT IMPLICATIONS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

There are several highly important implications in Secretary of State Byrnes' announcement that the United States has called a meeting of the proposed far Eastern advisory commission for October 23 in Washington.

Foremost among these is the clear indication that Uncle Sam has his chin up (but not out) and is standing on his perogatives in the matter of Japan's reformation and rehabilitation. Along with this he is backing up his good and faithful servant, supreme commander MacArthur. Equally importan is America's desire for advice from her Allies in working out the Japanese problem. And last but not least, there are great potentialities in the possibility that India may be invited to join the advisory commission.

Mr. Byrnes has given MacArthur a mighty fine vote of confidence. it would have come as a shock to the average citizen if the Secretary had said other than that the government has no intention of altering MacArthur's status as Supreme Commander in Japan. It would have been surprising, too if Byrnes hadn't confessed that he doesn't know of any complaints about the way the General has been doing his job.

MacArthur was assigned one of the most delicate and dangerous of the post-war tasks. If anybody could work faster than he has in disarming close to 3,000,000 Jap troops with a handful of Yanks, and gaining control of 80,000,000—even to making the Mikado wait on him, hat in hand—it would be a privilege to meet him.

Mr. Byrnes' remarks about MacArthur came in connection with Russia's suggestion that the establishment of a control council for Japan should precede the creation of the advisory commission.

He doesn't favor such a move since it obviously would mean either replacing the General or lowering his status as Supreme Commander.

The idea of inviting India to join the advisory commission is of far-reaching importance. England has sugegsted that India be included.

The raising of India's name has a double significance. In the first place I believe we can take it as an especially friendly gesture towards this great British possession by England's new Socialist government.

MORGANFIELD, Ky., Oct. 11.—(AP)—Pvt. William H. Garrett, 23, was home today from the European war theatre but his homecoming was far different from those of most GI's.

Rushed from Paris to New York on a plane bearing Gen. Mark Clark, Garrett was flown last night to Sturgis, Ky., airfield to attend the funeral of his entire family.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leslie Garrett, and his six brothers and sisters were killed last Saturday in an automobile accident near Providence, Ky. This afternoon they will be buried in eight separate graves in the Morganfield Odd Fellows cemetery.

British Labor Cabinet Takes Up Dockmen's Strike

LONDON, Oct. 11—(AP)—Prime Minister Attlee summoned his labor cabinet into executive session today to consider the dock strike which spread to Glasgow and threatened Great Britain with a hungry weekend.

All major docks faced imminent tieups and delivery of food in these tightly rationed islands was imperilled.

No. 10 Downing Street issued no immediate announcement, but the question of government intervention appeared certain to be raised when the House of Commons assembles this afternoon.

The huge docks at Glasgow were closed down when 4,000 Scottish stevedores joined the strike.

In all more than 46,500 strikers are out. Some 2,500 more walked our during the morning at London and Newcastle-on-Tyne. Thousand more London dock workers were reported planning to strike after today for higher wages.

Well over 50,00 tons on needed food was tied up at miles of idle wharves. Much of the food is perishable.

Warehouse food reserves dropped to a menacing low.

Hopes for an immediate settlement of what union leaders called a "wildcat strike" diminished.

More than 1,400 British trops of the Royal Engineers and pioneer corps moved into Liverpool's eight miles of idle docks and prepared to begin work tomorrow unloading 200 ships in that storm center where 20,000 men are striking.

Soldiers also began unloading food at Manchester, Hull and Grimsby. They were unhindered by strikers, who declared that "the soldiers are our friends, our brothers and our sons—and they have their job to do."

The men are demanding a basic wage of 25 shillings a day (five dollars) and a 40-hour week.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS BE RETURNED FROM PACIFIC REGULARLY

By JAMES LINDSLEY.

TOKYO, Oct. 11.—(AP)—American GIs will be returned to the United States from the Pacific at the rate of more than 200,000 a month for the next six months, Allied headquarters announced today.

By the end of March a total of 1,250,000 men will have been returned to the States, leaving approximately 400,000 men in the occupation forces and units manning army installations in the Pacific Theater.

In Japan, four divisions (approximately 60,000 men) of combat troops, plus air service troops and special occupation units will remain. The Pacific forces will include 200,000 in Japan and Korea; seven thousand in the Philippines and 36,000 in Okinawa and

MILLIONS OF TONS OF MATERIALS WENT INTO ATOMIC BOMB

WHAT CAME OUT WAS MERE HANDFUL—BUT WHAT A HANDFUL

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor.

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Oct. 11.—(AP)—Millions of tons in construction and in raw materials went into the atomic bomb plants here, but what came out was measurable in handfuls.

Vest pockets sometimes could carry out the products of what was probably the greatest construction job in history. Briefcases in the early days were regular vehicles for transporting things that promised to change the course of civilization.

Later on the products reached the stage of an occasional ton that was inconspiciously handled. All the shipments for the Manhattan district, the name of the atom bomb project, were under the direction of Capt. J. W. Haley of Boston,

MINE STRIKES AND OTHER BIG PROBLEMS FACED BY PRESIDENT

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—President Truman faced spreading mine strikes as well as international problems upon his return to his desk today from a five-day vacation.

He put out the welcome mat for President Juan Antonio Rios of Chile who will arrive at the White House at 3 p. m. (CST) to be an overenight guest.

Meanwhile the senate foreign relations committee again delayed a vote on confirmation of Spruille Braden, former ambassador to Argentina, whom Mr. Truman naminated to be assistant secretary of state for Latin affairs.

Mr. Truman outwardly was optimistic over what he called "our little troubles."

Terming them "just a blow-up after a let-down from war," he told an audience at Gilbertsville, Ky., yesterday "we still have a few selfish men who think more of their own personal interests than they do of the public welfare."

The Chief Executive did not identify the "few selfish men" in his impromptu remarks which followed a formal speech dedicating the Tennessee Valley Authority's Kentucky dam, but he said:

"They are not going to prevail. You are not going to let them prevail."

He concluded: "Now let's all go home and go to work. Cut out the foolishness and make this country what it ought to be—the greatest nation the sun ever shown upon."

ADDITIONAL LABOR DISPUTES OFFSET RETURN TO TEXTILES

MINERS AND OPERATORS FAIL TO AGREE ENDING STRIKE AS MINES CLOSE

By The Associated Press

The nation's strike lines held at tround the 450,000 mark today, only a small decrease in 24 hours, as fresh labor disputes almost offset the return of 42,000 workers to jobs in Textile plants.

As new shutdowns in the six-state soft coal strike area forced additional thousands to the ranks of idle, bituminous operators and United Mine Workers Union representatives failed to agree on a compromise proposal to end the 21-day expanding work stoppages. Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach again summoned the conferees into session today to attempt to settle the dispute between operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers. The disputants, he said, are not far apart in their controversy over recognition of the UMW Foremen's Union, and he expressed hope that they should be able to agree."

The Secretary was expected to report to President Truman today on the progress of the negotiations Failure of settlement is expected to see a further spread of stoppages in the coal pits. Already some 188,000 miners have walked out from nearly half of the country's soft coal mines.

Operators Reject Plan

Although Lewis said he would call off the strikes if the operators would agree to negotiate on the recognition issue, the operators rejected the proposal. They said if they negotiated, they wanted to protect their present opposition to bringing the foremen into the Lewis union. They maintain that foremen and other supervisory employes are part of management.

As the conferences continued, new pits closed, and the coal shortage hit harder at steel production. West Virginia's idle jumped to 78,400; 60,475 were out in Pennsylvania pits. In Kentucky the strikes kept 27,200 away from work; 8,000 each in Ohio and Tennessee and 5,000 in Indiana.

Headed for Showdown

In Hollywood, the picketing of Warner Brothers studio appeared headed for a showdown. Movie strike leaders called 20,000 AFL Aircraft workers into the picket lines in front of the studio's main gate but only some 400 appeared. Five hundred officers were summoned to maintain order. Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz said if the aircraft workers picketed the studio they would be subject to immediate arrest.

A spokesman for the aircraft workers said they would join the picket lines "to prevent unjustified beatings by members of Warners' police when they appear as peaceful pickets. More than 100 persons have been injured in clashes at the studio, which stemmed from the eight-months-old jurisdictional dispute between two AFL unions over representation of 77 set decorators. Yesterday 326 pickets were arrested on charges of rioting and

NEW ISLANDS

If the earth gets crowded, live on the surface of the ocean. Ideas like that may yet be tried out, as a result of the invention of R. M. Hamilton of the British Navy. He has devised a method of floating landing strips and bridges on water like a carpet. Aircraft with 9,000 pounds of freight have landed and taken off from a test strip 520 feet long and 60 feet wide.

This means that mid-ocean landing bases are feasible. It also encourages the man who would like a private island to live on and can find none in the market. He can simply make his own.

Hamilton's device which he calls "Lily" from its resemblnace to lily leaves on a pond, consists of hundreds of buoyancy cans with six-sided surfaces linked so that they give to the motion of the sea yet remain firm enough to support a weight. It is a development of the "Swiss Roll" or floating pier of the Normandy invasion.

It looks as if 50 years from now there would be a lot of new islands on our large bodies of water.

WAR AND MATRIMONY

Evidently the European war is not over yet. This is a natural interpretation of the orders issued jointly by field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery to the British forces and by Gen. Eisenhower to the American forces in Germany. They are forbidden to marry German girls and will not be billeted with German families who, as the order states, have been "twice our enemies in war during the last 30 years."

Many Americans have been wondering why the recent wave of marriages between our soldiers and our recent enemies should have been allowed to start so quickly after the end of the war. The conflict has not been a football game, but a bitter war, conducted on our side for sacred principles of justice and righteousness which our enemies have not yet shown a disposition to respect. Until that time comes it is well to keep aloof from our enemies, collectively and individually.

EXPENSIVE LOSSES

Last year, more than a million social security cards were lost by their owners. Replacing them cost the price of 550 jeeps. The report does not state how much the replacement of lost ration books, automobile licenses and such small but important documents cost, but it must have been plenty.

An accident can happen to anyone. But the habit of being faithful about small things is one of the best preventives of accidents of this nature.

The Dutch have decided not to execute their fellow-countrymen who collaborated with the Nazis At least not yet. There are now being put to work at removing mines and booby traps from Dutch fields and factories. When this dangerous and necessary work is done, the collaborators will have their day in court.

"Fifty dollars a day is not too much if a man earns it," says Henry Ford. But who's going to judge whether he earns it?

The war has added greatly to knowledge. Before the war no one knew that butter could be sliced so thin.

AUTUMN'S PROMISE

When the trees turn red and gold
And the humblest bush appears
Something lovely to behold
As the end of autumn nears,
So I think it certain we,
After all, may fairer be.

When our purpose is fulfilled
And we're done with pain and care,
When whatever God has willed
We have done our best to bear,
With the glory of the fall,
God may grace the souls of all.

Since in autumn naught is seen
Of the spring and summer strife.
So beneath a charm serene
God may hide the scars of life,
And in victory's red and gold
Make us fairer to behold.

SHANGRI-LA ADVENTURE

Every little while, just as Americans are settling down to the view that this war after all was just a slugging match, there comes an interlude of heroic drama. The latest of these thrillers has been the story of the Wisconsin lad, Oliver Rasmussun, fittingly placed as a radio man on the carrier Shangri-la, whose plane was wrecked in bad weather by heading into a mountain of central Hokkaido. It is a real Robinson Crusoe tale, of which every normal American boy may be trusted to take full advantage.

The pilot was killed and Rasmussun, cut and bruised but able to navigate, was left alone. He stowed away the rations in the lifeboat and started overland for the coast. It was a Japanese farming country, and he did not dare show himself. So he lived by raiding farms and cellars and milking cows, drinking the milk and shaking cream in his canteen for butter and buttermilk. He thrived on such food and got his strength back, but was in continual danger, and finally learned from a Japanse that the war was over. The Jap shared his last cigaret with the American. Word was passed around and help came for him, and after three months he finally arrived safe in Tokyo.

It's just one of a hundred heroic stories that might be gathered up.

FIGHT FOR FIUME

Fiume, the Adriatic seaport coveted by the Italians, is apparently to go to the Yugoslavs. This seems to be the decision of the foreign ministers of the Big Five.

It is not the first time that Fiume has figured in the headlines. Its disposition caused an uproar in the Paris Peace Conference of 1919, and the temporary withdrawal of Italy. The difficulty is that Dalmatia, of which Fiume is a part, is overwhelmingly Slavic, while the coast towns, Fiume, Trieste and Zara, which constitute its outlets to the sea, are Italian. The secret agreement of 1915, made by Great Britain and France to get Italy into the war, assigned Fiume to the Yugoslavs, and the 1919 Peace Conference ratified this agreement. Eventually the Italians returned to the conference,, and Fiume remained Yugoslav till the Italian poet-adventurer, Gabriele D'Annunzio, a few years later seized Fiume for Italy.

Trieste is to be made an international port to solve the racial problem. Perhaps the same decision may have to be made for Fiume.

FAT PAY AND NO GOODS

The doctor met the editorial writer on the corner and proceeded to give him a piece of his mind.

"Why don't some of you people with the power of the press behind you explain to working people that a lot of money in the pay envelope won't do them any good if there isn't anything to buy with it?" he asked.

"I can tell an occasional person I meet on my rounds, but it doesn't mean much. The people I meet are all sick. But you sit at your desk and write stuff that goes to thousands of well people. And they all need to know that and nobody really makes it clear to them. Economists using fancy words don't mean anything to people who work with their hands. But telling them straight from the shoulder in words they can get the first time does mean something. Why don't you get on your job and tell 'em plain?

"Money isn't anything in itself. It's food and shelter and clothing and other comforts that people want. They can't have them unless they grow food or build houses or make clothes and so on. If they make enough things, the prices will be inside their pay and they'll be comfortable. If they skimp on their hours and get too much pay in proportion to what they make, the prices of everything they want to buy will go up and in the end there is hardly anything to buy and it won't go around and no matter how much money they get they won't have any comfort. Tell 'em flat. They need to know. They mean well but they just don't understand and nobody tells them.

"Half my patients are sick because they haven't the right food for the last year or more. They had money, but would it buy good red meat? Or butter? It wouldn't. It isn't money that counts—it's producing things to buy!"

STAR FARMER — Gordon John Eichhorn (above), of Marion, O., has been chosen "Star Farmer of America," it was announced the night of Oct. 9 at the national convention of the Future Farmers of America in Kansas City. A $500 award, offered by the Kansas City Star, went with the title. (AP Wirephoto)

A SWISS INVASION

While a good deal of the so-called civilized world is being neatened up lately, there are still various prominent places that need cleansing and putting in order. One of the most notable is Switzerland, which served as a refuge especially for German Nazi and Italian Fascists, two breeds which amalgamate rather easily. Large numbers of them have been living in luxury, in the beautiful little city of Berne. They have never been welcome there, and some 3,000 were ordered deported some time ago, but most of them are still hanging around, inviting a real hanging. The Swiss people, however, are too kindly for that.

It would be a great relief for respectable nations in general to see them cleared out of that great international playground and center of democracy, and kept out.

TUBERCULOSIS IS SERIOUS PROBLEM, DOCTOR DECLARES

"In spite of the knowledge of its cause and spread, and of curative methods, tuberculosis is still a very serious problem," states Dr. Will Miller, acting director of the Corsicana-Navarro Health Department.

"It is true that tuberculosis no longer is first on the list of killing diseases, as it was formerly," Dr. Miller said, but despite having been reduced to fifth place in Texas, it is still responsible for more deaths between the ages of 16 and 46 than any other disease. And this fact exists even though the majority of tuberculosis patients could have their condition arrested if it were recognized early and proper treatment applied."

Treatment of early recognized cases is essential, he declared. It is of equal importance, from a public health viewpoint, that the spread of this revastating infection be prevented. A more intelligent appreciation of this fact would result in the saving of thousands of lives, he continued.

"When a diagnosis of active tuberculosis has been made," Dr. Miller said, "an examination of all the other members of the immediate family should follow as a matter of course. Tuberculosis runs in families, not because of an susceptibility to the disease, but because it is communicable, being usually transmitted through close and prolonged contact with the active disease."

To reduce the number of deaths caused by tuberculosis, Dr. Miller suggests periodic examination of all adults, a check-up by physicians of the known active cases and contacts, regular examinations of high school children, isolation or hospitalization of the active tuberculosis case, and a more intelligent application of hygenic living principles.

TYSON SPEAKER AT THURSDAY MEETING OF CIVITAN CLUB

BIG BUSINESS, BIG LABOR, BIG GOVERNMENT DISCUSSED BY ATTORNEY

"The right to criticize, the freedom to find fault with, carries with it the duty to criticize constructively," declared Tom Tyson local attorney, when he addressed the regular Civitan Club luncheon meeting Thursday at noon in Navarro Hotel.

Tracing the rise of pressure groups, which seek their own selfish desires irrespective of the effects on others, Tyson said Big Business, Big Labor and Big Government were natural outgrowths of early expolitation of land and resources.

Big Government

'Big Business," he said, "is a further expression of man's acquisitive instincts. Big Business produced Big Labor and in current struggles we see the emergence of a child of the two, Big Government."

The advent of Big Labor has been a successful implement in curbing the abuses of Big Business and the health of Big Business is likewise useful in curbing Big Labor, he asserted. Big Government he termed indispensable to us all.

Right to Criticize

"And so," he concluded, "I am not hear to accuse Big Business. Big Labor or Big Government. We must have all of them. Rather I would plead with you to remember that the right to criticize carries with it the duty to criticize constructively.

In the past few years we've had the attitude that a man who hasn't gotten to where he can cuss the government is unlearned, unsophisticated and a back number. This is not healthful or helpful."

Praise Draft Boards

Both Tyson and Festus Pierce program chairman, paid tribute to the Selective Service Boards of Navarro County, who were represented at the luncheon by Sidney Brietz and R. R. Cocke.

Other guests were W. Lee Holman, Miss Gertrude Patrick, Clyde Bickerstaff and H. C. McElroy. A resolution was passed by the club asking W. A. Wright's retention as chairman of the Price Control Board which will be established October 17 to replace the present Navarro County War Price and Rationing Board.

the rest of the Ryukyus Islands. The rest of the 400,000 will be troops and service forces in Hawaii, the Marinas and other Pacific bases.

General MacArthur estimated previously that 200,000 men would be needed for the occupation of Japan six months after surrender; today's announcement cuts that figure by the tw divisions (approximately 30,000 men) which will be deployed to Korea from the total of 200,000 for the dual Korea-Japan occupation area.

Through Eight Centers.

The mass movement from the Pacific will be handled throough eight big processing centers at Honolulu, Okinawa, Saipan, Tacloban, Jinsen and Manila. Before any divisions are sent heme the low point men will be screened out to remain with the occupation forces replacing high point men from the units in the field.

As of January 1, the divisions in the Pacific will be located as follows:

On Japan—11 divisions, the 11th Airborne, First Cavalry, 77th, 81st, 25th, 97th, 32nd, 41st, 24th, 98th and 33rd.

Korea—7th, 40th and 6th.

Philippines—93rd, 96th, 86th.

The divisions which will finally remain as occupation troops are the 11th Airborne, 24th, 25th and First Cavalry on Japan; the 7th and 6th divisions in Korea, and the 86th in the Philippines.

Headquarters said the war department had made a vast amount of shipping available for the mass return of troops.

wartime excise levies on such things as liquor, furs, jewelry, luggage and cosmetics, at a saving of $535,000,000 to consumers in the last half of 1946. Some $160,000,000 in taxes on floor stocks under excise also would be refunded to business.

5. Repeal the $5 automobile use tax, next July 1, relieving the burden on automobile owners by $140-000,000.

The legislation also freezes the social security tax in 1946 at one per cent each on employes and employers. Without the freeze this tax would jump January 1 to 2.5 per cent.

The bill came to the House floor at 9 a. m. (CWT) under a rule virtually barring any changes. At the request of the Ways and Means Committee which wrote the measure the rules committee laid out procedure prohibiting amendments unless approved by the Ways and Means group.

ration which has long been ruled by dictators were impressed on the new "crisis" premier at a one-hour conference with the Allied commander—from 5 to 6 p. m. (Tokyo time.)

Designed to create a government which will be a servant rather than a master of the Japanese people, the reforms will require "liberalization of the constitution of Japan," Allied headquarters said.

The reforms stressed were emancipation of women through enfranchisement; encouragement of labor unionization; opening of the schools to a more liberal education; abolishment of the "systems through which secret inquisition abuse has held constant fear" over the heads of the people; and democratization of Japanese economy revising monopolistic industrial controls.

The Allied commander likewise stressed the need of vigorous and prompt action by the government in feeding, housing and clothing the people to prevent widespread starvation, disease and social unrest.

"The coming winter will be critical and the only way to meet its difficulties is by the full employment of everyone in useful work," MacArthur said.

The new premier called on MacArthur to discuss outstanding problems confronting his newly formed government.

FSA LOANS AMOUNTING TO $45,138 MADE TO FARMERS OF COUNTY

Loans amounting to $45,138 were made to Navarro County farmers by the Farm Security Administration during the past fiscal year, according to a report released in Dallas this week by E. Lee Ozbirn, regional director. Borrowers repaid $53,217.16 during the year.

More than 30,000 farm families in Oklahoma and the eastern portion of Texas borrowed money from FSA. In a breakdown by states, the report shows Texas farmers borrowed $6,470,841 and repaid $11,324,447. Oklahomans borrowed $5,980,409 and repaid the agency $9,200,166. At present, more than 30,000 loans are outstanding. Since the agency was established in 1935 it has assisted nearly one out of every five farm families in these two states.

Confident that FSA can assist returning servicemen to reestablish themselves on the farm, Congress has given the agency $50,000,000 this year for its farm ownership program, more than three times the appropriation for the last fiscal year, and made veterans eligible for operating loans, for which an additional $67,500,000 was appropriated.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Herman V. Andrus On USS Kittson In Pacific Area

Herman V. Andrus, MOMM 3-C U. S. Navy, stationed on the U. S S. Kittson, outlined the history of his ship in a recent letter to his wife, the former Geraldine Osborne of Corsicana, now of Waco. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Andrus, reside two miles west of Corsicana.

The ship has travelled 30,000 miles, was christened on August 28 1944, at San Pedro, Calif., and was commissioned on Nov. 5.

Following a couple of months spent cruising along the California coast, the Kittson left on Dec. 26, 1944, on her maiden voyage—to Okinawa. En route to Okinawa, stops were made at Pearl Harbor, Majuro Atoll, Eniwetok, Ulithi, Peliliu, Anguar Islands and Leyte. A graphic description of the invasion of Okinawa was included in the history of the craft including two suicide planes diving into American ships, and other periodic air attacks. Out o 182 planes coming against the fleet in one day, 116 were shot down, a majority by the ring of battleships, cruisers and destroyers surrounding the transports.

The Kittson left Okinawa and returned to the states via Guam and Pearl Harbor and carried another contingent of Navy passengers. Andrus was at Guam when the Japanese surrendered. He wrote his wife from Yokohama, Japan, Sept. 8, about the history of his ship.

CARLOAD OF SPUDS ARRIVE IN COUNTY FOR DISTRIBUTION

The Irish potato long-time favorite on the American menu, promises to be plentiful at the lunch tables of Navarro county school children this fall.

A carload of the "spuds" has arrived for distribution to county schools in Henderson, Navarro, and Freestone counties and a total of 16,000 pounds was unloaded in Corsicana Tuesday for distribution to Navarro county schools for use in connection with their regular lunchroom programs, according to announcement made by J. C. Watson, county superintendent of schools.

The potatoes, with the exception of quantities going to the I.O.O.F. homes in Corsicana and Ennis, are to go strictly to schools operating a lunchroom program approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Watson said. This is the first of a series of shipments expected to supplement county school lunchroom supplies, sent in connection with operations of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation to qualifying schools. Shipments of cabbages are expected to arrive next week, with sweet potatoes scheduled the following week, according to the county superintendent.

Schools qualifying for surplus commodities to be used in connection with their lunchroom programs include the following: Powell, white and negro; Long Prairie; Mildred, high school and elementary; Zions Rest; Emhouse; Pickett; Navarro, white and negro; Richland; Bryan; Purdon, white and negro; Barry; Blooming Grove; Corsicana; Dawson, white and negro; Frost; Kerens; I.O.O.F., Corsicana and Ennis; and the two nursery schools in Corsicana.

A total of 2,825 children are given lunches daily through this program, the county superintendent estimated.

This Recruiter Sells Self On Another Hitch

Sgt. Royer H. Austin, recruiter assigned to the recently opened United States Army recruiting office located in the State National Bank Building, must be a fast talker.

While reviewing advantages of re-enlistment with the idea of convincing others of its merits, Sgt. Rayer decided that it was just the thing for him to do. "I literally talked myself into it," Austin, who has re-enlisted for another year, following four years of Army service, said.

In keeping with regulations, he now gets a ninety-day furlough. Accompanied by his wife, he left Tuesday for Philadelphia where he will spend the next three months. He expects to return to Corsicana at the completion of his furlough, he said, to see if he can be as successful in applying his recruiting methods to others as he was with himself.

TWO CARLOADS OF SUPER-PHOSPHATE ARE DISTRIBUTED

Two carloads of 20 per cent super-phosphate to be distributed to Navarro county farmers under the committee system set up by the AAA, have arrived and is now at the Southland Cotton Oil Company awaiting distribution, C. T. Young, local ACA secretary, announced Tuesday.

Only two more carloads of the super-phosphate which is to be used only on pastures or with full seeding summer or winter legumes will be shipped direct to the county for distribution through AAA committees, Young said. Additional phosphate will be obtained under the purchase order plan henceforth, he explained.

Price of the phosphate ready for distribution is $4.20 per ton cash difference, the ACA secretary stated. It is being distributed to local farmers according to regulation soil-building allowances, and Navarro county farmers who are eligible to receive the phosphate are urged to make application at the local AAA office immediately.

HOUSING PROBLEM MEANS MORE THAN FULL SUPPLY OF DWELLINGS*

Real Spirit of Home is the Master Need -- Essential Place of Religion in Family Life -- Woman's Highest Sphere and Man's True Position.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

Our day is deeply home conscious; or perhaps we should say house conscious. The housing problem is being given precedence over all public post-war issues except food. Almost of a sudden there has arisen around the world a surge of resolution that all persons shall be decently housed. Slums are doomed. In a new society, families shall no longer be housed like animals. Here we have a practical task commensurate with the war effort.

Quickest and surest of all the methods for averting violent revolutions is to give every family a home worthy of selfrespecting men and women, in which they may take pride, the stability of which they will defend. Better homes are the surest defense of a nation. The measure of a community's patriotism is its courage and vision in dealing with housing problem. It takes a high order of citizenship and vision to wipe out profitable slum areas. Yet this is nothing less than a primary civic duty.

A "Career" For Women

More than modern housing is needed to make good homes. Here we confront the problem of women as homemakers. It is a much discussed question whether women in war work will be content to return to housework. For a generation the idea of independent "careers" for women has been spreading. The definition of a "career' has extended to absurd lengths: the drudgery of office work; clerking in stores; toiling in mills; prancing over a stage or declaiming before a microphone—all of these and more have been glorified into "careers", more desirable than creating a good home.

Let us be candid and clear on this point. It takes more brains more good nature, more feminine graciousness to fulfill a woman's first duty as a homemaker than it does to hold down any public job. And the rewards are infinitely greater. To be a good cook, a good housekeeper, a good hostess a good mother, is to fulfill woman's highest ambition.

Homes That Build Character

Mother's knee is the best theological seminary. Someone has said that most of life's important lessons are learned either at mother's knee or across it.

The child that has been reared on Bible stories and teachings, and surrounded by a Christian home atmosphere, is best equipped for life. Character is formed in earliest years. If shaped on the anvil of God's word it will stand the stresses and strains of later life. Here the mother is the master workman.

Instances throng to mind of godly women, sometimes brilliant who have wrought wondrously in creating happy homes, despite poverty and restricted circumstances. They knew themselves to be partners with God in the greatest work in the world. He was their inspiration, their guide and their comforter.

All sorts of "women's movements" pervade the land; but the one geratest of all is the resolution of wise and Christian women to make their homes centers of sincere religion and bulwarks of the nation. They will obey the Lesson's injunction to bear upon their hearts the words of God's law, that thou "shalt teach them diligently unto they children, and shall talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up." Moses, who uttered these words, did not consider religion an elective. He believed it was made for the whole of life.

Is Father the "Old Man?"

Modern feminists do not like the Bible's emphasis upon the headship of the husband in the home. Current literature and humor and cartoons and conversation commonly picture father as the blundering and unrespected 'old man". His ideas are flouted and his position belittled.

Who ever knew a happy and truly Christian home where the husband was not treated with the respect and affection which the Commandment enjoins? Grief sometimes lifelong, awaits the child who does not honor father and mother.

A good home is a place of good humor—stories, puns and light jests should be a course in every meal. Bickering at the table is first of all, stupid. It mars the most perfect thing in the world, a happy home life.

The Carpenter's Home

Of all the emphasis upon the sancity of the home, the greatest is that God put His Son, Jesus, into a lowly carpenter's home to be reared and prepared for His world mission. In the household of Joseph and Mary the early character of Jesus was shaped. There He "grew in wisdom, and stature, and in favor with God and man."

That Nazareth home was not a mansion. Today society is drastically learning that mansions do not necessarily house happiness. They are on the way out, a drug on the real estate market. Nor was it mansions that Jesus promised in heaven: the real translation of that word is 'abiding places," or "permanent homes."

The Christian home on earth is perpetuated in heaven.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK IS OBSERVED IN NAVARRO COUNTY

Fire is costing Texas farmers $10,000 a day, Lennox O. Wright Farm Security Administration supervisor said today as he called upon Navarro County citizens to observe October 6-13 as National Fire Prevention Week.

'We have defeated the enemy on the battlefield, but we yet must thwart the enemy which annually takes nearly four thousand lives and destroys more than a hundred million dollars worth of property", Wright declared.

Farm families cooperating with the FSA program are being urged to check their premises thoroughly to eliminate fire hazards. Safety measures call for storage of gasoline and other inflammables away from the house and barn, installation of lightening rods, placing of hay a distance from buildings, creation of fire breaks at the rim of grass or grain fields and periodic check of electric wiring and chimneys.

In addition, farm families are urged to keep a ladder, fire extinguisher and a bucket of sand always available for fire fighting and to have first aid materials on hand for treatment of burns.

Children of FSA fmilies are being enlisted to act as "Fire Marshal" around their farms.

'Boys and girls can render their own families and the entire community and nation a great service by appointing themselves as guardians of life and property," Wright emphasized. 'Keep after the adults until they eliminate all possible causes of disastrous fires."

MUCH BUSINESS IS DISPOSED OF MONDAY BY COMMISSIONERS

COURTHOUSE PLUNGED INTO DARKNESS WHEN LARGE FUSE BURNED OUT

Members of the Navarro county commissioners court were very busy Monday despite the weather conditions and torrential rains that prevented any road work.

In addition to the regular routine of bills, claims, reports, etc. Monday at the regular meeting, the court had many other duties and requests during the day.

City authorities and chamber of commerce committeemen appeared before the court with a plan whereby Danny Nicholson will provide a city-county airport under certain conditions northwest of Corsicana. The court was asked to help in the levelling of the proposed runways.

Two physicians Drs. G. H. Sanders and O. C. Bowmer, members of the county hospital board, outlined a broad future expansion program for the P. and S. Hospital for thought and consideration.

Fuse Burned Out

Meanwhile the entire courthouse was plunged into darkness during the rainstorm when one of the larger fuses burned out.

Some of the basement offices became dark.

The electric heater in the detained jury room stopped as did the clocks, electric typewriters, adding machines and drinking fountains. An electrician late Monday afternoon was still seekig to determine what was necessary to relieve the overloading of the facilities. The courthouse was erected in 1905 and electrical appliances, etc., have been added from time to time. It will cost hundreds of dollars to provide an adequate remedy.

County employees called the court's attention to the need of replacing the 39-year-old flues in the boiler at the powerhouse near the county jail. An advertisement for that repair was authorized along with an order advertising the leasing of the county farm for 1946 to the highest bidder.

Roof Leaks

Leaks about the entire courthouse along the drains was called to the court's attention and Monday afternoon, accompanied by a news reporter the court went to the clock in the top of the courthouse where the cause of the leaks became apparent. Bird's nests and trash had stopped up the downspout openings, causing water to be held in the valleys and in the huge gutters about the edge of the roof. The commissioners went out through a sky light, crawled about the high roof, almost afraid to look down, cleaned out the downspouts and allowed the surplus water to quickly run off.

While in the top of the courthouse inspecting the giant clock the 2 a. m striking occurred with some members of the court plainly showing their fright and none denying it.

Coming back to their rooms, the court further discussed hospital needs, approved the weigher's bond of L. F. Murff at Rice, and talked about attending a judge's and commissioners convention Oct. 18 at Nacogdoches.

Judge L. L. Powell, presiding officer of the court, was called out on several occasions to conduct probate and other matters while the court was in session.

Butler Announces County Quota For Victory Loan Drive

An overall quota of $1,905,000 has been set for Navarro County in the Victory Loan Drive beginning October 29 and continuing through Dec. 8, according to Joe E. Butler, Navarro County war finance chairman.

Navarro County's quota on Series E Bonds is $475,000. Tabulation on Series E, F and G Savings Bonds and Series C Savings Notes will run through December 31, Butler said.

Following more than three months after the Mighty Seventh, the Victory Loan, in which the Treasury is asking for $11 billion, is the last of the war loans. Series E, as well as F and G, savings bonds will continue on sale thereafter.

Among things for which the money is needed, Butler named care of the wounded and rehabilitation of veterans as uppermost. Money invested in bonds will curb inflation, he continued, and it will be used to bring men home, and to maintain armies of occupation.

"In the past four years, the American people have shown excellent judgment in their attitude toward bond buying," the Navarro chairman said. "If they exercise that same good judgment during the critical times immediately ahead, we have nothing to fear."

Information From Navarro County Rationing Board

Buyerfs of orchard run pecans and orchard run seedling pecans will be required to assume all cost of transportation from the producer's nearest shipping point to the buyer's receiving point, wherever it may be, according to W. A. Wright, chairman of the Navarro county war price and rationing board.

For the 1945 crop season, growers' maximum priess of 28c a pound for orchard run improved pecans and 21c a pound for orchard run seedling pecans will be established at the point of shipment, Wright said.

These figures represent the addition of the customary 1 1-2c a pound for average transportation cost to the ceiling established at the producer's nearest shipping point. The new ceiling will not increase prices to consumers, nor will it affect prices already established for intermediate wholesalers and sheller packers.

Overage panchromatic film which the Army has declared surplus, is selling at the following specified ceiling prices: 36 sheets 2 1-4 by 3 1-4, $1.38; 36 sheets, 5 by 7, $4.40.

The Navy has released a million new Navy raincoats, and a smaller quantity of navy pea jackets lined with corduroy. The retail ceiling price on the waterproofed black twill raincoats is $15, and the ceiling price on the pea jacket is $22.50.

An amendment which becomes effective October 10, 1945, provides automobile repair shops with an option of using time allowances not to exceed those listed in the regulation for 56 common auo repair jobs and following RMPR165 in pricing other repair jobs, on the one hand, or remaining under RMPR 165 and following requirements almost identical with those which heretofore appeared in SSR 48, on the other hand.

The optional feature of SSR 49 as thus amended makes it desirable to withdraw automotive repair establishments from SSR48.

for the tieups of Japan's big industrialists with the military and imperialism.

Today's announcement said the Japanese government has been ordered to report all foreign exchange assets, including private holdings and foreign holdings of the imperial household, within 90 days.

Previous directives had:

Forbidden import and export of foreign exchange.

Forbidden foreign exchange transactions within Japan.

Closed wartime imperialistic banks and ordered seizure of assets.

Forbidden commercial communication from Japan to the outside world.

Ordered seizure of government, army and navy precious metals.

Today's announcement pointed out that many big families in Japan have extensive foreign holdings and "in several cases 35 per cent of their assets are located abroad."

The stated purpose of the financial directives is to assure that all Japanese owned foreign holdings and gold, silver and platinum reserves "would be available for such purposes as the allies might direct."

The new directive gave the government, its agencies and the imperial household 30 days to file reports.

Today's announcement indicated the possibility that the new directive might uncover war fortunes cached abroad.

May Revise Constitution.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—(AP)—NBC Correspondent Guthrey Janssen said in a broadcast from Tokyo, monitored here, that Emperor Hirohito had named Prince Fumimaro Konoye, his cousin, and Dr. Soichi Sasaki, Liberal professor of history and considered an authority on the Japanese constitution, as special advisers to Marquis Kido, lordkeeper of the privy seal.

Janssen said well informed Japanese expressed the opinion the appointments mean that the Emperor was planning to revise the constitution on his own initiative.

refusal to disperse but they were later released.

Longshormen's Strike

There was no improvement in the serious strike of 35,000 to 60,000 AFL Longshoremen in New York harbor. Union officials who urged members of six local unions to return to work were booed at a stormy meeting in Brooklyn last night.

More than 350 ships were idle and redeployment of troops was delayed as the world's biggest harbor felt the effects of the 11-day old walkout. The war shipping administration said ships would sail to Europe without cargo. Thousands of tons have piled up as a result of the strike.

The only bright spot on the labor front was the reutrn of 42.000 CIO Textile print and dye workers to 284 plants in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania after settlement of a wage dispute. The strike started on Sept. 27.

A strike at the American Steel and wire company shut down operations of the Donora, Ia., plant and kept 3,200 workers off the job. The company said a strikers' demand for a tonnage rather than hourly wage rate was in the process of being handled under contract procedure with the CIO United Steel Workers.

Schwellenbach Makes Report On Strikes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—(AP)—Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach reported to President Truman today on the deadlocked soft coal situation, but said the President sent no message to the conferees who are seeking a settlement.

The secretary, beginning his fifth day of conferences with bituminous coal operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers in an effort to halt the critical coal stoppages, said however the President "is very anxious that they get together."

The miners and operators are locked in controversy over recognition of Lewis' foremen's union. The issue has shut down nearly 850 mines. About half of the nation's 400,000 bituminous coal miners are affected.

After his White House visit Schwellenbach frankly admitted physical fatigue after many days and nights of conferences looking to a settlement.

When reporters asked whether he was still optimistic, he replied with a smile and a shrug:

"I'm getting awfully tired. I was up last night and the night before."

He said, however, he did not believe that "we have reached that point yet" when asked whether legislation might be necessary to cope with various strikes that have sprung up in the reconversion period.

The miners and operators gathered again today to try to compromise their differences over unionization of foremen, whom the owners feel are part of management. But the negotiations were obviously at a stalemate.

PRESIDENT REPORTS ON UNITED NATIONS RELIEF TO CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—(AP)—President Truman told congress today only $20,000,000 of this country's eight hundred million appropriation for United Nations relief remaned uncommitted Aug. 31.

Mr. Truman transmitted the fourth report on American particIpaion in UNRRA as the House appropriaions committee began closed hearings on his request for another $550,000,000 to meet "acute need and privation" in Europe this winter.

"Life abroad in the coming winter," the President said in a letter transmitting the report, "will depend upon the outside assistance which this country and other countries can render to the liberated peoples."

Mr. Truman added:

The more this task can be speeded up through the early delivery of vitally needed supplies, the sooner it will be possible for UNRRA to withdraw, leaving the liberated peoples on a firm footing to carry on their own life."

The report covered the quarter ended last June 30.

Most of the material in the report has been superseded by individual reports made public since June 30.

It did include a few new figures, however. One was a statistical table showing that as of Sept. 15 all 44 nations participating had pledged $1,882,759,991 to UNRRA. Of this, $1,268,750,254 had been paid in or is "available on request" toward "operating" expenses while $15,415,334 had been contributed for amministrative purposes.

Discharged Service Men Seeking Jobs At Employment Office

Discharged service men constitute the major portion of activity in the local United States Employment Service, according to an announcement by W. B. Reedy, manager of the office, Thursday.

Most applicants are still shopping for high paying jobs, and are reluctant to accept jobs at the prevailing wage, which causes the local labor market situation to remain unchanged from previous weeks.

A total of 56 were referred to jobs the past week, with 17 hired.

A total of 49 persons registered for jobs with 137 employment opportunities.

The current principal demand for labor is unskilled labor for males. Railroad workers, sheetmetal workers, carpenters, machinists, shoe repairman, refrigerator man, lineman, wool presser and laundry workers are needed. The principal manpower available are bookkeepers, general office workers, stenographers, truck drivers, mechanics and laborers.

TEEN AGE WORKERS MAY BE REPLACED BY WAR VETERANS

WESLACO, Tex., Oct. 11—(AP)—War veterans may replace teen age workers in lower Rio Grande Valley packing plants this year, according to the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Association.

Two years ago the Association appealed to youngsters to help with the annual job of packing the Valley's citrus and vegetables.

But the Association at its annual convention recently at Monterrey, Mexico, voted unanimously to give War Veterans first chance at jobs.

CHANDLER DECLARES "SMEAR" CAMPAIGN COMPLETE FAILURE

VERSAILLES, Ky., Oct. 11.—(AP)—United States Senator-Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler said at his home here today he "obviously" had been attacked in an organized smear campaign designed to descredit him in his new baseball office.

Referring to published reports that differences of opinion existed between himself and baseball club owners and that the owners were attempting to buy off his commissioner contract, Chandler said:

"It is obvious there has been a smear campaign worked up against me which has been paid for. I don't know who was behind it and I am not interested, because it didn't get any place. My position is solid."

PALESTINE TRAINING DEPOT RAIDED AND WEAPONS SECURED

JERUSALEM, Oct. 11—(AP)—The Palestine military headquarters announced today that a large number of armed Jews raided the Palestine training depot early this morning, overpowered the guard and fled with a quantity of weapons and ammunition.

The raid resulted in a sudden increase in tension which had been reported lessening last night following the arrival of several thousand British reinforcements and the withdrawal of police cordons around the villages of Beth Oren and Yagur.

Police had encircled the towns in an effort to capture 200 Jews who killed one British constable and injured an Arab and a Jewish policeman as they fled from the clearance camp where they had been detained for illegal entry into Palestine.

Meanwhile, in Tel Aviv, a police communique said police were stoned by "a large mob" when they sought to carry on "a routine search."

Clark Threw Curve To Prepared Speech Boys; No Bow Tie

DALLAS, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark threw the boys with prepared speeches a curve here last night by appearing at the banquet in his honor without his famous bow tie.

Several references were made to his bow tie, but when he stood up he was wearing a blue four-in-hand with large white diamond designs.

He explained he had changed because his six-foot-three son had criticized his bow tie as undignified.

Biggest laugh of the night was brought by Solicitor General J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island. McGrath said he and Clark would make a strong team because Texas and Rhode Island together were larger than any other two states in the Union.

Tom Clark invited his friends to drop in his office when in Washington, said they might run into difficulties in getting by secretaries, but told them a certain password would open all doors.

The password:

"I'm from Texas. I knew Tom there."

Demand New Trial for Laval.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Former Premier Paul Reynaud, condemned and imprisoned by the Vichy government during the German occupation, today headed a list of prominent French figures demanding a new trial for Pierre Laval, his political arch-enemy.

Laval, dressed in a condemned man's suit of burlap sacking, was transferred yesterday to a cell in death row at Fresnes prison and chained to a wall with leg irons.

M'DONALD WARNS ABOUT CARELESS USE DDT INSECTICIDE

AUSTIN, Oct. 11—(AP)—A warning aginst the careless use of DDT insecticide was issued today by J. E. McDonald, State Commissioner of Agriculture.

"Over 80 per cent of the DDT offered for sale does not come under the jurisdiction of any state regulatory agency," said McDonald, since both household and poultry insecticides are exempt from provisions of the agricultural and livestock regulations."

Since these products are not registered the purchaser has no way of knowing the amount of DDT or other ingredients contained, said McDonald, and has no recourse of the product proves worthless or detrimental.

"There have been many harmful results from the use of DDT on livestock," said McDonald, 'though possibly not always from the DDT itself, but from its combination with other ingredients, lack of proper labeling or careless following of meager information."

ORIGINAL OIL ORDER BEEN REINSTATED BY RAIL COMMISSION

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 11—(AP)—The original oil order, authorizing a net daily allowable crude oil production of 1,785,089 barrels daily has been reinstated by the Railroad Commission to become effective at 7 a. m. on Oct. 12.

Return to full operation of refineries which had been strikebound brought restoration of the order and set aside revisions which had been instituted to cut production in the face of refinery shutdowns.

The original October order called generally for 21 producing days over the state, with exceptions ranging down to 14 days and up to no shutdown days.

The allowable was 207,152 barrels less than that of Sept. 15, a cut of 10.4 per cent with all districts excep the Panhandle sharing the decrease.

ATOMIC BOMB

cating their position. Knowledge of electronics promises ability to detonate atomic bombs at great distances by radio. Such inerceptive defense can be effected at the greatest distance from our shores by the navy."

Wallace explained that the United States might be loathe to use the bombs because of its traditional non-belligerent attitude. Other nations might not, he said.

One World Or No World

"We might build up a stock that would destroy all the cities of another nation, perhaps the world" he said, "but some other country with one-third our stock could destroy all our cities. In this field (atomic destruction), it is one world or no world."

Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) asked why the Russians appeared to be making such progress in science under government direction whereas there seems to be some feeling here that government aid would stifle advancement.

Wallace replied that in Soviet Asia, scientific regulation "is not nearly so strict as people think."

Generally in Soviet Asia, Wallace declared, "I was uterly amazed at the extraordinary emphasis pleed on science even in the lowest grades of school xxx in the remotest corners of the country."

In discussing atomic bombs, Wallace said he was in accord with President Truman's statement that "the hope of civilization lies in arrangements looking, if possible, to the renunciation of the use and development of the atomic bomb."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—(AP)—A drive to give congress firm control over the atomic bomb began today in the House Military Committee.

Backed by most Republican and a few Democratic members, it took the form of an amendment to forbid a proposed atomic energy commission from dealing with foreign governments in any way that might allow the bomb secret to leak out.

Any such dealings could be carried on only with specific approval of congress.

As drafted by the administration, the pending bill to set up the commission would permit it to grant foreign licenses for atomic experiments if the President approved.

Another amendment drafted by a group of committee members would forbid the President himself to give tht bomb secret to a foreign government without congressional approval.

There is no question in the committee that Mr. Truman now has authority to do as he pleases with the secret, but there is strong sentiment in favor of removing this power and giving it exclusively to congress.

As it now stands, the bill undertakes primarily to control domestic use and experimentation. It calls for creation of a nine-member commission appointed by the President, with the consent of the Senate, to exercise rigid controls.

The commission would have power to requisition property and materials, including ore fileds from which uranium is extracted.

BOMB

Massachusetts Institute of Technology graduate of 1932.

The small volume of output is not incredible when it is recalled from official announcements, that early in the project chemists and physicists had to work with materials measured in millionths of a gram. That is something far less than the weight of a human breath.

Even in the final bomb stages the actual explosive stuff for a big bomb is not heavy by ordinary standards of shipment.

In addition to other shipments there were consignments of radio-active materials.

These ray materials had to travel fast, for they usually lose their rays in days or weeks, and some last only a few hours.

When brief cases carried important shipments, officers usually were the porters. Sometimes they were in uniform and sometimes not. Still other shipments were carried by two-men teams, riding in a pullman room. The pair were not sent because of weight, but for safeguarding their cargo.

Guards for all sorts of shipments were trained uniformly in how to carry guns in a way never to be seen, but to be ready for a quick draw.

"PUSH BUTTON" AGE OF AERIAL WARFARE NEAR SAYS ARNOLD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—(AP)—Gen. H. H. Arnold is looking ahead to a "push button" age of aerial combat that may be only five or ten years away.

The chief of the rrmy air ofrces is said to believe that military airplanes as they are presently known will be outmoded within that period by robot craft and auto-guided missiles.

During the transition period however, Arnold wants 6,500 airplanes and 600,000 men. He outlined those wants to the Senate military committee at a private luncheon yesterday at the Pentagon.

Recently Arnold advised aviation industry leaders he favored unstinted spending for development of a new war plane type, but not for production of current models.

In line with this idea an air force schedule submitted to the budget bureau provides for 1,200 new planes next yehr, all of a type not unknown to the public.

But budget bureau is understood to have cut in half Arnold's request for research and development funds—from $250.000.000 (about the same amount as the AA Fspent last year) to $125,000,000.

The navy's request for aricraft research was cut from $156,000,000 to sixty one million.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK SAYS HE WILL FIGHT SELFISH

DALLAS, Oct. 11—(AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark said here last night that he would wage legal war on any selfish interest that threatens the American system of free enterprise.

Clark spoke at a banquet in his honor, given by friends in his hometown here. Some 700 persons were present.

"I am only a small town lawyer," Clark told his friends. "My job as attorney general is just a lawyer's job."

"We are there to see that simple justice is done." Clark said. "Constitutional guarantees must be held inviolate, civil liberties preserved."

For the businessmen of the nation, Clark said the antitrust laws would be enforced for their own protection.

"This means an end to selfish protection of the entrenched, and an end to domination ad extermination of the small to protect the advantages of the large, an end to the right of dollars to stifle brains, incentive and inventive genius; an end to supernational cartel cospiracies."

With Clark were Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan, chairman of the Democratic National Committee; Edwin W. Pauley, U. S. representative on the Allied reparations commission; J. Howard McGrath, solicitor general of the United States, and Congressmen Hatton W. Sumners of Dallas and John E. Lyle of Corpus Christi.

In an interview before the banquet, Pauley said he would fly to Tokyo Oct. 28 to make material penalties that will be imposed upon Japan for her war guilt.

"I am going to be as tough is I can be," Pauley said.

Clark will be in San Antonio today and at Corpus Christi tonight.

French Charged With Failure To Feed Prisoners

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 11.—(AP)—U. S. headquarters suspended today the transfer of any further German prisoners to the French after the International Red Cross charged that captives in French hands were suffering from malnutrition and not being treated according to the Geneva convention.

The American army has turned over to the French approximately 700,000 prisoners of war for work in rehabilitating France. An agreement was signed last spring for the transfer of 1,300,000.

The International Red Cross was reported authoritatively to have made representations to the U. S. army a week ago about wide-spread malnutrition among German prisoners in French camps they had investigated.

The representations were said to have accused the French of not living up to terms of the agreement.

AGREED GOVERNMENT MUST LOOSEN WAGE CONTROLS EARLY DAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Many reconversion officials are "pretty well agreed" today that the government soon must loosen its wage controls.

This is reported by one of Director John W. Snyder's advisers, although there is no indication that the conclusion is shared by Snyder himself or by President Truman.

Snyder, however, is under strong pressure to set forth a revised wage-price policy to check the wave of work stoppages that threatens to delay reconversion.

Three officials of Snyder's Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion—all of whom asked anonymity—said the economists and advisers in that agency are nearly unanimous in support of a new government policy declaration.

They have suggested that wages could be increased perhaps as much as 15 per cent (OPA officials say something nearer 10 per cent is likely) without increasing the cost of goods more than 2 or 2 1-2 per cent.

Such a government policy would carry assurance to employers that OPA would consider prompt price increases to cover the 15 percent wage boost. If a higher increase—say 20 per cent—were granted, all the extra 5 per cent would have to come out of the employer's pocket.

Synder was reported not only gravely concerned by the inflationary threat of such a program, but also puzzled as to how to apply it to specific industries, since labor is a big cost factor in some and a minor one in others.

Mr. Truman has indicated he will need convincing, too.

"SCOUTS IN ACTION" SHOW IS SCHEDULED HERE NOVEMBER 10TH

The Navarro District Committee of Boy Scouts, upon hearing a report from Fred Harvey, camping and activities chairman, in its Tuesday night meeting at the Chamber of Commerce, set a tentative date of November 10 for a "Scouts in Action" show in Corsicana.

A building located at the corner of Fourth Avenue and Beaton street, has been secured for the event because of its availability to the general public. Scout troops in and about Corsicana are invited to cooperate with the Scout field executive in the selection and development of projects to comprise the show.

Further actions of interest in the district committee meeting included a resolution to open a Scout Leaders' Training Course on November 1, under the direction of Gaston Gooch. The course will be offered on that Thursday at 7:30 p. m., and on the five succeeding Thursdays, Thanksgiving excepted. If present plans materialize, the training sessions will be held in the educational building of the First Methodist Church.

Another decision was made to cooperate with the Navarro War Chest's 1946 drive, to secure Scouting funds outside of Corsicana. The program of Circle 10 council is financed through the city's Community Chest.

Attending the meeting were John Corley, Bob Reading, Mr. Gooch, Guy Henry, J. C. Watson, J. R. Howell, E. E. Collins, Vivian Mowlam, C. O. Ferguson, A. H. Newton and Don Winslow.

Representatives from all over the district have been invited to attend. Among the cities included in the Central Texas Association, are Dawson, Hubbard, Thornton, Teague, Waco, Hillsboro, Lampasas, Georgetown, Gatesville, Mexia, Fairfield, Kerens, Camp Hood, Cameron, Belton, Temple and others.

CLAYTON URGES QUICK ACTION ON REQUEST MORE FUNDS UNRRA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Assistant Secretary of State William H. Clayton today urged congress to appropriate promptly the remaining $550,000,000 of the original $1,350,000,800 authorized for NRRA.

The $800,000,000 already appropriated isvirtually exhausted and the remaining sum is needed quickly to avoid "disastrous interruption" of supplies to millions of war victims, Clayton said.

He appeared before the deficiency subcommittee of the House appropriations committee, which is considering the appropriation for the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration. President Truman has recommended the additional money.

Clayton said UNRRA had delivered to war-torn areas "very large quantities of supplies which have meant the difference between acute distress and a semblance of decent living."

"A delay of even a few weeks will be extremely serious."

Deliveries of most major items of relief supplies from the United States would cease entirely in December and January unless the additional funds are made available Clayton reported.
